

Bupa Great Manchester Run

Why take part in the Manchester Run? The Paget's Association has a number of guaranteed places in the BUPA Great Manchester 10k Run taking place in Manchester city centre on Sunday 16th May 2010.

- Britain's premier 10km running event
- A Great Run in a great sporting city
- Entry limit 36,000
- 2010 event to be staged on Sunday 16 May
- IAAF Gold label status
- City centre start and finish
- Live coverage on BBC TV

The Paget's Association has a number of guaranteed places in the BUPA Great Manchester as a fundraising event there is a minimum sponsorship for the event which includes the runner's entry fees into the race.

Minimum sponsorship: £250 for a guaranteed entry place.

The circular route around the city takes you past the iconic sites of the Lowry Centre, Old Trafford, Bridgewater Hall and Manchester Central.

Supporting us by running in the Bupa Great Manchester Run will allow us to continue our work – supporting people with Paget's disease, running our helpline, funding research into the condition and raising awareness.

Guaranteed entry places

To get one of our guaranteed entry places please complete and return our registration form.

With each guaranteed entry place we ask for a minimum sponsorship of £250 which includes the race entry fee. It is important to consider this commitment carefully when applying – we rely on the sponsorship raised to help people with Paget's disease
